SOCIETY

TODAY'S EVENTS.
A luncheon will be given today at the University club by Mrs. T. H. Bishop, when covers will be laid for twenty.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McConaughy and Mr. and Mrs. John Cain will entertain a large number of their friends this evening at cards at the McConaughy home.

At Rowland Hall this evening, Miss Colburne will entertain at a dinner dance in honor of the members of the sophomore class.

Mrs. J. P. McGeath will be the hostess this afternoon at the second in a series of bridge affairs.

A dancing party will be given this evening at the Leonard Memorial home for nurses at St. Mark's hospital, in honor of the senior class, from 8 to 12 o'clock.

Colonel and Mrs. J. J. Daynes, Jr., will entertain the musical and literary club this evening at their home.

Miss Phyllis Dwyer entertains this afternoon for Miss Florence Tingey, whose marriage takes place next week, with a Kensington.

An unusually delightful dance was enjoyed last evening in the post hall at Fort Douglas. From 8:30 to 9 o'clock the regimental band was on hand and gave a short musical program before the dancing was begun. Colonel and Mrs. Walter S. Scott received the guests, including the officers and ladies of the garrison, and quite a large representation of society people from town. The hall was gay with the regimental colors, with flags draped over the windows and forming a background for the brilliant assemblage. Dancing continued until 11:25, after which Major and Mrs. J. M. Armstrong entertained a number of friends at a hop supper at their quarters in Officers' Row.

A pleasant social event of last evening took place in the parlors of the First Congregational church, when the Ladies' Aid society of the church entertained the members of the congregation. The rooms were luxuriously fitted up with Navajo rugs, couches and easy chairs, presenting a homelike appearance, and were also decorated with potted plants and cut flowers. Delightful musical numbers were given during the evening by Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Brines and others. A large number took advantage of the occasion, and from 8 o'clock until 11 the rooms were filled with interested friends of the society. The social committee in charge of the affair were Mrs. W. W. Norton, president of the aid society; Mrs. A. O. Clark, Mrs. F. L. Parker, Mrs. J. W. Smith, Mrs. O. D. Brown and Mrs. Shields.

Mrs. D. H. Livingston was the hostess yesterday afternoon at a prettily arranged card party, when she was assisted by her sisters, Mrs. R. W. Madison, Mrs. F. E. Bagley and Mrs. I. R. Barton. A color scheme in pink and white prevailed throughout the rooms, where the games of the afternoon were played, vases of pink carnations and snapdragons being used. The tea table in the dining room was covered with a cluny lace cloth, with a tall crystal vase of carnations surrounded by smilax forming the central decoration. The prizes were won by Mrs. H. L. Nelson, Mrs. W. Eldredge and Mrs. I. R. Barton.

A luncheon was given yesterday at the Lion house by the Misses Mary Snell and Leona Cowley, in honor of Miss Florence Tingey. Pink and white flowers were used in the pretty decorations of the table, where covers were laid for a dozen friends of the bride-elect.

Mrs. Garrett B. Wilkin entertained the members of the Sewing club yesterday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Cullen, which was attractive with decorations of spring flowers.

Under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church next Friday evening, Thomas Weir, who has recently returned from Hawaii, where, with Mrs. Weir, he spent the winter and early spring months, will speak on experiences gained during his residence in the interesting islands.

Mrs. James E. Jennings and mother, Mrs. Sophia Sharp, returned the first part of the week from southern California, where they spent the winter in Los Angeles and the beaches.

Mrs. Renner X. Smith has returned from New York, where she went to spend the Easter vacation with her daughter, Miss Margaret McClure, who is attending school in the metropolis.

Miss Kate Williams expects to leave Sunday for an eastern trip.

Mrs. W. W. Armstrong has been called to Andover, Mass., where her son, Sherman Armstrong, is attending school, and is ill with typhoid fever.

At the meeting of the history section of the Ladies' Literary club Thursday morning, the annual election of officers was held with the following result: Chairman, Mrs. G. E. Bothwell; assistant chairman, Mrs. Byron Groo; secre-

PRODUCE GERMAN PLAY.
University Students Give Finished Performance of "The Liars."
The German play "Die Lugnerin" (The Liars), given by the German students of the University of Utah last night, was well received by a large and enthusiastic audience. The play had its setting in Germany. A lawyer, well past 40 years, and a guardian of an heiress, asks her for her hand in marriage. She refused him and stated that she was already engaged to a young man of the community, although in reality she was engaged to no one. When the young man to whom she said she was engaged learned of the ruse, he compelled her to live up to her falsehood and they are married. During the play some excellent musical numbers were rendered by Miss Carrie Browning

BUILDER OF APARTMENT HOUSE SEEKS INJUNCTION

Claiming that the work is defective, of poor material and being done in an unworkmanlike manner, Charles Offer yesterday brought an action in the district court against George V. Ballard to enjoin him from continuing the installation of a heating plant in the apartment house now being erected by Offer at 78-80 Fourth avenue. Ballard is doing the work under contract dated November 22, 1909. Offer says that if Ballard is allowed to continue the work it will cost him at least $1,000 to have it done over again.

RATES ON LUMBER TO UTAH POINTS REDUCED

The Oregon Short Line and other roads centering in the northwest will put new lumber and shingle tariffs in effect from Seattle and other coast points to points in Utah and Colorado on May 23, by which time new lumber markets, considered among the best in the United States, will be opened to millmen of Washington, tributary to the Oregon & Washington railroad. The rates will be via the Oregon & Washington, Oregon Railroad & Navigation, Oregon Short Line and Union Pacific systems. Shingle shippers in Washington tributary to the Harriman lines will secure the same rates on forest products as far as Leadville, Colo., as Oregon manufacturers.

BUYS SITE FOR A BARN

Z. C. M. I. Pays $7,000 for Lots on Which Stable for Delivery Teams Will Be Built.

The Z. C. M. I. has purchased a tract 10x10 rods on Third West street, between Third and Fourth South streets, and will erect a handsome stable for its delivery teams. The property was formerly owned by Lawrence Scanlan, and the consideration in the recent deal was $7,000.

The tract is located near the present warehouses of the institution. Just what changes will be made in the property can not be given out at the present time, but an excellent building will be erected as soon as plans can be prepared, and the structure will probably be ready for occupancy by early fall.
